Chamber Music Training Course

Prof. Federica Repini

2026 – 2027

The Fondazione Luigi Bon, with the support of the Regional Department for Employment, Education, Training, Research, Universities and Family, Fondazione Friuli, and the Munari-Volpini Scholarship, with the aim of promoting the study and professional development of chamber music ensembles, announces a:

Call for Chamber Music Ensembles for musicians aged between 17 and 35

Excerpt from the regulations:

WHO CAN APPLY

- Pre-existing or newly formed ensembles
- Musicians who have graduated or are in the advanced stages of their studies

WHAT WE OFFER

- Scholarship covering tuition fees (minimum 10 lessons)
- Reduced enrolment fee: €250 per person for duos and trios, and €200 for larger ensembles

FOR OUTSTANDING ENSEMBLES

- Up to 2 paid concert engagements
- Professional photo shoot
- Free audio recording for ensembles intending to enter competitions

Lessons will be held at intervals of no more than three weeks, from October 2026 to July 2027. Ensembles based more than 150 km away may be offered either accommodation or a flat-rate travel reimbursement.

Regular and consistent attendance is essential; lessons may only be rescheduled in cases of genuine necessity

Individual musicians are also welcome to apply with the intention of forming an ensemble. In such cases, the jury reserves the right to suggest suitable pairings for the creation of a new group.
